Theological Commencement Exercises—Ordination Degrees

Conferred—How Fisk Seniors Will Use the Time After Graduation—Dr. Derrick Delivers a Lecture.

Lincoln University, Pa., Special.

Last week was a week of general preparation; everything was put in the best condition for the reception of friends who were to visit the Theological commencement. On Sunday the Rev. John A. Munro, D D., of Philadelphia, preached the annual sermon. It was interesting, also the address to the graduating class. Tuesday at 11 a. m., all assembled in the Chapel and were entertained by the University club, under the supervision of Prof. J. R. Barrett. The concert was one of the finest, if not the finest heard in Lincoln for years. The singing was good, and the instrumental music by Messrs. Anderson, White. Rankin and Clark was loudly applauded. At 2 p. m. the graduating class, led by Dr. I. N. Rendall, and followed by every class in college, each class in its respective order, filed into the Chapel. The first speaker was J. P. Gregory, of Maryland, his subject, "The Bible in the School," was masterly handled and his delivery eloquent. Next, Richard Meyers, of West Indies, subject: "Peter the Pope," proved himself a scholar of sacred history. F. D. Tilden, who was next on the programme, has been confined to his bed several weeks. All who know his power of wielding speech much regretted his absence. He is convalescing. The secretary of the board of trustees then announced that the degree of D. D. had been conferred upon Revs. W. H. Morris, of Connecticut; W. L. Johnson, of South Carolina, and W. H. Thomas, of Rhode Island. The class stood while Dr. Rendall announced their degree and commissioned them to go forth and give as they had received. The valedictory was delivered by W. F. Cotton, of Maryland, and was commendable. Dr. W. R Bingham, president of the board of trustees, then delivered the last and most interesting address. After commending the graduates, he said that Dr. J. A. Hodges, a lecturer at Harvard University and a member of the University extension, had been appointed to fill the vacancy made by the death of Dr. D. F. Jones. A friend, whose name is withhold, has endowed a new chair in the Theological department which will be filled in due time, built on another part of the campus, which is to be separate from the college. It is to be a grand structure, fitted in every way for that department. It will surpass any Seminary in the world for colored, and equal to many established for any other race. It is said that preparations are being made to enlarge the whole school and add to it all the departments necessary to make this a University indeed. On April 21st the student of the Preparatory department held their oratorical contest. The judges were Messrs. J. R. Barrett, E. W. Coberth, C. H. Williams, D. B. Miller and C. E. Tucker. There were fourteen speakers, nine of whom were selected to speak June 5th: S. A. Davis, South Carolina; H. H. Wayman, Pennsylvania; Wm. Slawe, Pennsylvania; W. B. Romans, South Carolina; C. A. Robinson, South Carolina; J. B. Exum, North Carolina; J. S. Fuller, North Carolina; Pickens, South Carolina, salutatorian, and James Suggs, North Carolina, valedictorian, were the nine.

B. Carmichael, a student of Roger Williams University, in behalf of the three schools, to which Dr. Derrick responded in eloquent terms. This was the Fourth Annual Lecture of the Bureau and it congratulates itself upon securing the services of Dr. Derrick, who has made a great impression upon the citizens of Nashville and upon the students. Long may he live to continue his interest in his race. Omnes una voce Speramus ut Dorminus eocum in perpetuum.

Do You Know Him?

Trenton, La., Special.

Editor Freeman:—I wish to inquire through your paper something about a man that is in our midst, who has caused a great deal of trouble. When he first came here he gave his name Dr. R. P. Erving, B. S., of Wilberforce, Ohio. I have looked through a catalogue from that school that gives the graduates from 1871 till now, and his name is not on the lists. Any information that will give light on the above, will be thankfully received by a host of our best people here. If you know the man personally send me a card, Communications may be sent to Rev. Wm. G. Hend, Trenton Ouachita Parish, La.

LIFE IN THE REGULAR ARMY

Not the Roseate Picture that it is Sometimes Painted.

Woes that Await the Would-be Patriot who does not Tickle the Admiration of Officers—Briefs.

Fort Huachuca, Arizona, Special.

I promised something about time a man throws away in idleness, when he may stay on the outside and live in peace and harmony and not only that but he may be able to make some woman a good husband. I will give you my own personal life here. I was kept at the recruiting office for several days and from there was sent to David's Island New York harbor. My first meal consisted of baked beans bacon and baker's bread. This I tried too, but I could not eat but very little of this kind of food I was then taken before the Dr. for the second examination. A man is examined when he goes to enlist in the army in the following manner. You are stripped of all your clothing then you are asked to hop around the room first on one foot and then on the other, next you are told to get on your all fours and a piece of carpet is spread on the floor, then you jump up and down on this first on one knee then on the other; then you are asked to cough then you are asked if you have a cough all the time and if you are a drunkard or words to that effect; then you are asked if you are single or have any one looking to you for support and if you have why, you are not allowed to enlist but if you have no one looking to you for support, why, you are sworn in, if you are a healthy man. After being examined the second time at David's Island, I was then vaccinated in three places on my left leg to prevent the contagion of any kind of disease but my advice is, if you have a good home or if you want to enjoy yourself at all times, stay out of the army. You think or say to yourself, why do I stay? Wait until my time is out and see if I enlist again. You will find men here in the service who have been here ever since 1862. These men have an idea that they cannot live any where else. You will also find men here who have never seen a cable car. These men have been on the frontier ever since they enlisted and whatever you do if you want to get through the army alright, you must be quick to obey all orders given you both by officers and noncommissioned officers. Never let your captain get down on you and always keep on the good side of the first Sergeant and to do this you must do favors for him that is not a soldiers duty, not that one of them can't be bought for a little money. You may ask what harm your first sergeant can do? I will tell you unless he likes you he can make it very unpleasant for you. For instance, he will run to your company commander and tell him every thing he can on you and now and then a small lie. I have witnessed one case in this post where a man was tried for not working for his captain, he was tried for disobeying an order, of course he could not be tried for not working for his captain but he was tried for not obeying the order given him and the order was to report at his captain's house at one o'clock on a certain day and do some work and he did not go. Had he gone he would have been tried for missing school as every man on his first enlistment has to attend every day in the week except when he is on guard and Saturday. This was of Co.— 24th Regiment. He was tried by general courtmartial and dishonorably discharged from the service. But if you have a good captain and one who looks for a man to perform the duty of a soldier and nothing else, why you are alright but when you find a first sergeant and company commander who want men to favor them it is hard soldiering in a company of this kind and it is still worse where you will find an officer in command of a post like Lieut Col. Noyes of the 2nd Cal. A man like this walking around the post with his hand in his bosom hunting work for you to do. You will see from 40 to 50 colored men march up to the quartermasters storehouse and all men in the front rank are given a shovel and men of the rear rank a pick. You are then marched to where a ditch is to be dug and see the white soldiers come out and smile at us while we are working, and if the honorable Secretary of war or the President knew how the Negro soldiers of Fort Huachuca, were treated they would either relieve Col. Noyes or remove the soldiers.

INTO THE WEE SMA' HOURS

Of the Morning Extended the Bedlamic Deliberations of

A Warring Religious Flock—Wearisome Proceedings, During Which the Church Books are Taken.

Jackson, Miss., Special.

Monday night, April 10th, the night set aside for the final settlement of the Mt. Helen church affairs, was one of those dark and tiresome spring nights, when over all the world nature seems dead. Up and down the various streets pointing towards Mt. Helen, everything appeared quiet. Here and there an electric light would flare up, sizzle and darken. On the main streets everybody would whisper: "What is the latest from Mt. Helen?" A Freeman reporter arrived very early on the church grounds and found the seating capacity absolutely tolled. Judging from the drift of sentiment around the vestibule of the church, the "Seraphical angel" had flown away, leaving behind him this dreadful malediction: "Oh Jerusalem, how often would I have gathered they children together as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not;" or, words to that effect. After some considerable devotional exercises, the acting moderator announced, in behalf of the church, the readiness for the transaction of business. The "outs," after some discussion, called for the reading of the agreement and accordingly the agreement was read. Among other things the agreement provided that the uncontested names on the books would decide all pending litigous matters. That clause of the agreement necessitated the reading of the names on the church books, in view of which fact the acting secretary, Essex, was ordered to read alphabetically all names on the church books. This was an exhaustive element of the proceedings, for the secretary commeneed reading the list at exactly 9 o'clock p. m. and when the last name was read it was 2:10 a. m. During the secretary's session of name-reading, the Topp faction contested over 100 of the Williams followers, as also did the Williams side contest quite a number of the Toppites. After the time consumed reading the names went so far up into the night, the Topp side suggested adjournment until some more auspicious time, but the Williams side unanimously objected to this, and the objection was finally sustained. Considerable sneering and jeering was going on around the lobby of the church and a confusion was around the "Amen" corners of the church. During this tumult the Toppites attempted to offer a resolution denouncing the Williams side for having held "secret" meetings elsewhere than in the church, all of which was against the peace and dignity of Baptist doctrines. This resolution found its way to the table, through the instrumentality of a "howl," raised by the Williams side. The overruling of two successive proposals by the Williams side was looked on as a sort of victory by a man-up a-tree. A mighty yell went up here, and continued notwithstanding the moderator's vain "rap" for peace. During this applause the Topp postou combine got hold of the books and "spirited" away in the dark, but the Williams side sang: "We won't go home 'til morning."

After the exit of the Toppites, the Williams crowd, about 200 in number, offered a resolution withdrawing all allegiance to the Rev. Topp, declaring him the bone of contention, and declaring his seat as pastor vacant. At 4:30 o'clock a. m. the Williams side left the church as happy as ever a school boy went home from school. The Toppites, like the "old guard," die but never surrender. Rev. Topp still preaches, and the Williams side proclaim victory, and that is the attitude of the church affairs. No one can tell what the results will be, but the house now stands hopelessly divided, and slowly but surely drifting into the courts. Each side is hostile to the other, and they will tarry thus until some one flies around and pours oil on the troubled waters.

The modern amusement known as the "Crazy party" was celebrated last Saturday night by the C. C. C. club of this city. It was quite an enjoyable affair and the proceedings realized were second to none ever gotten up in this city. This club is composed of some of the Four Hundreds of the city and this is their second public reception. President Johnson, of this club, deserves great credit for the ability and tact with which he presides over this veritable Beau monde.

PROF. W. C. O. JACQUES

The Traveling Artist—A Succession of Successes—A Sketch of His Work.

Prof. Jacques, the traveling Negro artist was born at New Gascony, Arkansas, Agust 5, 1858. His parents Henry and Nellie Jacques were both slaves. He was the seventh child. He was educated in the public schools of Pine Bluff, Ark. and the Branch Normal college of that city. He published at one time the Arkansas Mansion, the first colored paper ever published in that state. He commenced his work as an artist in 1884 and is now second to none in this country. His first noted picture was a painting of Gen. Grant, which he painted for the House of Representatives of Arkansas and for which he recieved $160. He has painted many portraits for $100 each. He went to Texas in 1889 and opened a fine art gallery at Dallas where he met with success. He kept an art studio in Dallas eight months and made in that time $2500. He then commenced traveling and teaching the art, giving persons who have talent for art a chance to learn this useful work. He taught large classes in all the large cities in Texas, i. e Fort Worth, 20 students; Waco, 30; Austin, 35; San Marcos, 15; San Antonio, 45; Houston 20; Galveston, 50. He also taught large classes in New Orleans, La. 48 scholars; Plaqueminn, 20; Baton Rouge, La, 15. In Natches Miss., he had a class of 45 and gave one of the grandest pictorial exhibitions ever given by colored people in America. He taught classes in Vicksburg and Jackson, Miss. His work in Meridian was a grand success. His class there nnmbered 55 students. He is now teaching a large class in Selma, Ala. In connection with his teaching he delivers lectures on the race problem and his lectures and sermons are making the colored people open their eyes in the right direction. He is the greatest lecturer on the "Negro in the South" that the country now has. After he delivers one lecture in a city it is no trouble for him to get crowded houses. He is doing a great work for his race and his equal as a painter is hard to find. He is now with a fine art company of persons he has educated in the art, and they all can do fine work. Mrs. W. C. O Jaques his amiable wife is a fine musician and artist. She was born and educated in San Antonia, Texas. Mr. Okazuma is his advance agent and collector Mr. Thomas H. Horace his assistant artist is a native of Alabama. Mrs Louvena V. Buckley our enlarging artist is a native of Mississippi. Every one who sees the work pronounces it fine.

Colored People Going North.

Wilmington, N. C., Special.

Many of the colored people of this city are leaving for the North. Some of them leave on every steamer and many who are not leaving, are talking of doing so, because the times are so hard here. Many of the good laboring men can be seen standing on the wharf doing nothing. The literary society, which was recently organized, met last Wednesday night and performed an interesting programme, which consisted of singing, reading and debating, there was a large crowd of visitors some of the old as well as young, were present. Miss Rosa Whitehead, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Whitehead, will graduate from Shaw University in May. Mr. Whitehead expects to be there on graduation day. Two prominent colored merchants says, that there is much need of a good colored daily newspaper in Wilmington. And that they are willing to help establish one here. Every Negro who desires to elevate himself ought to read The Freeman, it will cost you only five cents per week, or twenty cents per month. Take one of the many nickles which you spend every week for tobacco, snuff cigars and cigarrettes and buy a copy of The Freeman, and when you read it through, then you will be convinced that it will pay you to buy it every week.

A STREET DIALOGUE.

Lady on Left—"How exasperating some men are, now instead of that simpleton walking right along as a well bred gentleman should, he is fairly twisting his nead from his shoulders to look back at us."

Lady on Right—"Yes, and beside, a person might be wild to observe him, and couldn't, for you know as well bred ladies, we must seem not to want to, even when we are just dying to look."

Man Soliloquising—"So many of our well dressed women spoil the effect of their good clothes by their bluffing air, and defiant manner, as though such things were necessary to prove them ladies."

A NEW PUBLISHING COMPANY

Elects Their First Board of Directors—More Commerce

And Less Oratory—What is Needed to Place the Race on a Footing With Other Races—A Business Block.

Cleveland, O., Special.

The stockholders of the Fraternal Printing and Publishing company elected their first set of directors, The following were chosen: Rev. D. W. Shaw, president; S. W. Hansbary, vice-president; W. O. Bowles, secretary; Wm. Baily, treasurer. This corporation, recently organized, bids fair to become a powerful ally in the uplifting of our people. There is nothing which lends more substantial force and enhances our progress more than a wise and thoughtful business stroke. We need to rise in the business world. If we had half as many good business men as we have good orators, we could to-day, command a respectful position in the busines world. We should incline more to business. Frederick Douglass deserves great credit for launching a grand business enterprise even at this late day; but if he had interested himself in such things long years ago, it is very probable that the race would have been indebted to him for greater deeds. It is the purpose of this company to purchase land and erect a brick building.

This block will contain, in addition to the composing and press rooms, a public hall, rooms for lodge meetings and a small store of general stationer's supplies. A public hall is an accommodation long desired by our people. Of course, we have ready access to all the halls in the city, but there is nothing like possessing and controlling a place of your own. A weekly journal will be published, which will be, in the truest sense, the organ of the people. It will be edited by the ablest literary devotees in our city. The young, vigorous, ambitious, brainy men, will wield the pen and express the people's thoughts. It is needless to say there will be some opposition. Already there is some attempt at opposition; but then, nothing succeeds without experiencing some obstacles, however insignificant. It is the testimony of history that there has never been anything so wise and good as to be entirely free from difficulties. There is always some one foolish enough to oppose the wisest plans,

No argument is needed to prove this and like enterprises to be a wise step and there is no possibility of failure here, for the monies accruing from rents alone would be sufficient to work a small profit. Brains and business tact are at the helm; if the people will continue to furnish the rest as they have already indicated by large subscriptions in numerous instances, the ship must sail. The company earnestly solicits the confidence of the public in other communities as well as our own. Miss Rosa Farmer and Mr. Samuel T. Boyd will be married at Mt. Zion church on the evening of the 27th inst. Rev. D. W. Shaw is preaching a series of excellent sermons to young men, The Christian Endeavor society had a very interesting meeting last Sabbath evening. The meeting was conducted by Miss Mildred Meares. Hon. John P. Green, who left for Europe recently, intends to make an extensive tour. Miss MeLissa Nickens, of Linden street, is very much improved. Address all communications to EDW. A. BROWN,

CLAIRVOYANT.

MRS. MARTH, the world renowned and highly celebrated business and test TRANCE CLAIRVOYANT, reveals everything. No imposition. Can be consulted on all affairs of life Business, Love and Marriage a specialty. Every mystery revealed, also, of absent, deceased and living friends. Removes all troubles and estrangements, unites the separated and causes speedy marriages. $1,000 challenge to any medium who can exceed her in her startling revelations of the past, present and future events of one's life. Remember, she will not for any price flatter you; you may rest assured you will gain facts without nonsense. She can be consulted upon all affairs of Life, Love Courtship, Marriage, Friends, etc., with description of future companion. She is very accurate in describing missing friends, enemies etc. Her advice upon sickness, change in business, journeys, lawsuits, contested wills, divorce and speculation is valuable and reliable. She reads your destiny—good or bad; she withholds nothing.

MRS. MARTH, born with a double veil, is a seventh daughter, tells your entire life—past, present and future—in a DEAD TRANCE; has the power of any two clairvoyants you ever met. In tests she tells your mother's full name before marriage, the names of all your family, their ages and description, the name and business of your present husband, the name of your next if you are to have one, the name of the young man who now calls on you, the name of your future husband, and the day month and year of your marriage—how many children you have or will have—whether you are married or single; whether your present sweetheart will be true to you and if he will marry you; if you have no sweetheart, she will tell you when you will have, and his name, business and date of acquaintance. Clairvoyantly ALL YOUR FUTURE will be told or written in an honest, clear plain manner and in a dead trance. Mothers should know the success of their husbands and children, young ladies should know everything about their sweetheart or intended husband. Do not keep company, marry or go into business until you know all, do not let silly religious scruples prevent your consulting.

Madame is the only one in the world who can tell you the FULL NAME of your future husband, with age and date of marriage, and tells whether the one you love is true or false.

EGYPTIAN TALISMANS.

MRS. MARTH, while wandering with the Gypsies, obtained it, and now is the only one in the city who has the GENUINE CHARM. Although unprincipled women who call themselves Clairvoyants. Astrologers and Fortune Tellers, claim to have its secret, rest assured its power is too sacred to be in the hands of such artful women who would put it to bad use.

Reader, do you ever notice that some people seem to have good luck all the time, no matter what they do, they seem to prosper, while others, yourself may be, have such a hard time to get along, no matter how hard they try, they find at the end of the year they are no better off than when they started. This is because they have not the Talisman, while the successful people, in all probabilities, have been to one of the few genuine mediums and obtained one.

If you are unsuccessful in business, have bad luck, things go wrong with you, then you should have an Egyptian Talisman. This removes all evil influences, brings good luck, and keeps all trouble and sickness away. Do not marry, begin any business or do anything until you have secured one of her Talisman. It will bring back the runaway lover wife or husband.

A Glowing Success—Handsome Prizes Awarded—A Well Known Physician Suddenly Expires.

Louisville, Ky., Special.

Henry Lucas, colored, who is wanted in this city for wife murder, was captured in Chicago about two weeks ago, according to a dispatch received by the Post of this city. It will be remembered that Lucas lived with his wife at 148 Grayson street, and two years ago one night he went home drunk and because his wife would not give him the money she made by washing, he drew a knife and stabbed her to death. He escaped, but was located a year later in New Orleans, where he was going under the assumed name of Davis, but he made his escape before he was arrested. Detective Owens sent a man to Chicago, Thursday night, to identify Lucas and return him to the scene of his crime.

A grand concert was given at Macauley's Theater, recently, for the benefit of the Widows' and Orphans' Home of the U. B. F. & S M. T. lodges, a strong organization. The members have bought a 240 acre farm about six miles from the city, where they purpose erecting a large building for the widows and orphans of the order. The concert was given by the little colored boys from the House of Refuge and was a success despite the stormy night, and these little boys delighted the audience with their singing. Rev. J. H. McMullen addressed the audience by request of the managers, after which he presented a gold watch to Mrs. Ella Brown, which was offered to the lady selling the highest number of tickets. Mrs. Brown sold 390 tickets. The second prize, a handsome silver water pitcher and cup, was presented to Mrs. Susie Payne, who sold 266. A physician was summoned and everything done to relieve him, but to no avail, and he died at 5 o'clock Thursday morning. Dr. Conrad was much respected. Some years ago he was pastor of the Jackson St. Methodist church, but resigned the church to practice medicine, at which he has been successful. He was the chief officer in the state of Kentucky of the Knights of Tabor, and secretary of the National Union Medical College of this city. POINTS GONE A GLIMMERING.

Efforts to Organize an Independent Political Party

Swallowed by a Faction—A Ministers' Union—A Territorial League—Business Enterprises—Marriages.

Guthrie. Oklahoma Special.

There has just adjourned a convention of colored men from this city that has stamped upon every ones mind the fact that it is time the Negroes should be up and doing. The convention met for the purpose of organizing the Negroes of Oklahoma Territory into a political party independently. The question of the wisdom of such a move was closely questioned, and the lily white republicans were stirred up and it is said paid money to prevent organization. We do not know that this is true but a hot fight ensued when the committee on resolutions reported, a majority reported against organization the minority report by a close vote was substituted for the majority report and its passage hung fire. Many leading whites were interested listeners and lustly cheered every sally of wit or climax reached by the speakers. "For or Against Organization.' This was the all absorbing topic, and it seemed that for the moment the Anti's would carry their point but by the cleverness of the chairman, Rev. S. Douglass Russel, who Moses like came to the rescue, leaving off the political significance, he advised the convention to organize for the good of the people. The convention organized into a Territorial League with S. Douglass Russell, of Kingfisher O T. president; Capt. C. H, Tandy, of Guthrie, vice president; Prof. C, T. Talliafania of Guthrie, secretary. The convention then repaired to the refreshments prepared by the ladies of Guthrie. Our energetic and whole-souled young groceryman, cor. Oklahoma Ave. and Division st. seems to be doing a land office business Mr. S. Richardson has built up a fine trade. Mr. J. A. Janett and Mrs. Bettie L. Christbugh were married last Thursday evening. Rev. E. M. Argyle of the A. M. E. Church officiating. It is said that the elite of the city were in attendance. The Minister's Union of this city is already doing good. Preachers seem to be on better terms with each other than before. President Argyle says he does not intend to rest until every colored minister in the city is a member. Mrs. Emma Richardson, Miss Jessie graff, Miss Jessie Denny and Mrs, Cordelia Argyle gave a strawberry and ice cream festival at the A M. E Church last Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Pastor. It is rumored that Rev. A. E. Hubbard, of Oklahoma City had resigned the pastorate of the A. M. E. church of that city and that Rev. E. M. Argyle of the A. M. E. church would soon resign and go to Colorado to go in business, we could learn nothing definite. Inquiry revealed that the church knew nothing of his contemplated resignation. We have been informed, however, that a serious fight is on between the ministers all over the Oklahoma district and their Presiding Elder and that rather than serve under Elder Broadnax, the best element of the ministry of his church are leaving their charges. Elder A. R Norris of the M. E. church has nearly completed his new church corner of Broad and Springer avenues. Rev. A. P Jordan, of the Mount Zion Baptist church has his new church nearing completion. Rev. E. M. Argyle will have a grand financial rally next Sunday. The Freeman is prized highly here. Society is on a boom.

TEACHERS AND SCHOLARS

Injured by Falling Plaster—A Colored Catholic Church.

Houston, Tex., Special.

The plaster fell in upon the teachers and children of the 3rd Ward school last Monday and mashed some of the little ones severely. We learn that the building has been condemned long since, and the accident should not have happened.

A colored Catholic church was organized here some days ago and as soon as the membership reaches one hundred a colored priest will be called to the work. The Model Concert company will give its first concert Friday night, April 28th, at Mt. Vernon Hall. Rev. V. M. Cole preached at St. Paul church in Galveston last Sunday. The Y. M. C. A. is a thing of the past. Houston is noted for starting good things and letting them come to naught.

The District league held at Mt. Vernon M. E. church on the 8th and 9th inst. was quite a success. Drs. Mason, Jones and Cool made lasting impressions upon the leaguers. Mr. and Mrs. Milton A. Baker will tender a reception at their residence next week in honor of Lincoln R. Jones and wife. From what can be learned from prominent gossipers, Dr. Ferrill, the dentist, will soon claim one of Houston's fairest maidens as his co-partner for life. San Jacinto Day was observed Friday, the 21st inst., by all the merchants and laborers of Houston. Picnics, excursions, barbacues and fish-frys were given by every class and clan. R. L. Quarles has bought out the stand on the corner of Prairie and Travis streets, and opened up in good style.

Hon. N. W Cuney, Texas' foremost Negro citizen and politician, was in the city last week interviewing his chums. We saw him, but could not get to touch the hem of his garment for the crowd that surrounded him. The Negroes of Houston are very well organized, yet it is strange that more business enterprizes are not fostered by them. They are several colored men here that have money which would bring them lucrative interest if they would put it to work in some good business that is sadly needed. Boot and shoe emporium, millinery shop and an undertaker's establishment would pay well, if we had them. Now the question is, why not have them? Why not?

A ROUND OF GAITIES.

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON, President.

BAPTIST PREACHER'S INSTITUTE.

General Assembly Adjourns—Speaker Eulogized—General Notes.

Pine Bluff, Ark. special.

We have just experienced a pretty severe spell of cold weather for this season of the year and experts in this vicinity are trying to calculate the damage done to the fruit crops. The General Assembly has adjourned after an uneventful session of about ninety days. While in session the assembly passed about 206 bills of minor importance. The opinion seems to prevail that the work done falls far short of what should have been. The Baptist preachers institute is to be carried on at Rev J, C. Battles, church on West Barraque street, Quite a number of preachers are in attendance. Mrs. T. G. Childress, the estimable wife of Prof. Childress of the B. N. C. after a serious attack of sickness is convalescent. Hon. G. W. Bell has gone to Vermont to resume his medical studies. The Legislature adopted the report of the investigating committee, recommending a change in the faculty of the B. N. C., to the regret of all. Miss Verdie Bond was up from her temporary home at Cornerstone, where she is engaged in teaching, last Sunday. The St. John A. M. E. church song service under the leadership of Miss Nellie Goodloe is improving. Your correspondent visited Missouri street school last week and found all the teachers busily engaged in reviewing and making preliminary preparations for the close of school about the 1st of June. Mr, T. C. Green as Speaker of the Mock Congress at the B. N. C. is making a record for himself and the speeches made on each Saturday afternoon would do credit to any legislative body. Everybody should read The Freeman, for sale by Thos. H. Stuart.

Connersville Ind.

Sunday, April 16th was a great day for the Mt. Zion Baptist Church. L. W. Gray, of Shelbyville, preached after which Rev. F. P. Green baptized ten converts in the presence of about 5,000 people. Seventeen were added to the church in our last series of meetings. The Lord's Supper was administered at 3. p. m. by L. W. Gray. Collection $20 00.

THE FREEMAN,
GEORGE L. KNOX, - - Publisher,
INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA.

SATURDAY, APRIL 29, 1893.

EXTRA ANNOUNCEMENT.

Mr. George L. Knox, the Proprietor and Publisher of The Freeman, takes pleasure in announcing to the race and public generally, that commencing April 29th, 1893, the future subscription price of this paper will be one year $1.50; six months, 85 cents; three months, 60 cents.

This price will be permanent and is intended to apply to all persons and sections alike, with the exception of Clubs of 10 or more, for which special rates have been prepared.

REMARKS.

In taking this step relative to the future of the leading journal of the race, the motives which actuated were few but pertinent. Since the new Proprietorship and Management assumed the helm the most intricate problem it has had to contend with and face, considering the great expense attending the publication of The Freeman, was the length of time that must ensue before we could commence a division of profits with our big family of readers and friends.

That time has at last arrived, thanks to the appreciation of the race. The shadow of bankruptcy and failure that threatened the life of The Freeman under its former management has been lifted from it, and with success was born the determination that we are pleased by this announcement to call the race's attention to.

Other than our desire, by thus reducing the price of The Freeman, to certify to our readers and the race that we are not unmindful of their just claims upon our consideration, because of a support, generous and unflagging, and which has never once faltered or lost faith in us, we cannot be indifferent to the spirit of the day as it applies to newspapers and periodicals generally, which demands that their supporters and readers shall be furnished the best that money, brains and enterprise can produce, at the very smallest possible expense.

The day of "high prices" has passed, the hour of "low prices" is here, and The Freeman, without being asked or driven, takes its place at the head of the procession.

It will not only continue to remain the race's leading journal in every respect, and the only truly National one, so recognized the race over, and by all the great papers of the whites who can afford to speak the truth without jealousy or bias, but it will continue to broaden out along the lines by which it has grown to its present high water mark of circulation, and leading rank among its two hundred and odd contemporaries.

Its race news will continue the most, best, and reliable. Its classified columns accurate compilations of the daily and weekly achievements of the Afro-American as he is to-day.

Editorially it will remain at the front, keeping abreast of the living questions of the day, and will be always found possessing "opinions," and the courage to express them.

Now is the time to subscribe.

AGAINST BRAZILIAN IMMIGRATION.

What have the Brazilian Colonization Co. and its friends to say to this?

"Abram T. Hall, Jr., a Negro, has written a letter to the press warning the Negroes of the country against a company in the west that is trying to interest them in a Brazilian colonization scheme. The promoters of the company are Negroes, and they argue that there is no invidious race distinctions in Brazil, and that emigrants from the United States will enjoy greater advantages, not to say social equality, there. This is a delusion, Mr. Hall says, and he points out: 'Brazil was but recently a monarchy with slave-holding as its chief cornerstone, and has class conditions, growing out of its former federal policy, similar in kind and degree to those which are complained of here. It is a Catholic country in point of religion, and in that way is wholly at variance with the moral bias of most of the Negroes of North America. Placed in Brazil in any considerable numbers, with the brand of a former serfdom in the country from which they came still on them, and the prejudice of being 'interlopers' held against them; in an unfamiliar climate, amid a strange people, whose language, customs and avocations were foreign to anything they knew, their prospects would soon be blighted and their condition rapidly become pitiable."—New Orleans Picayune.

Let us hear from you gentleman. As this is a matter of importance, The Freeman will willingly publish any explanation or defense you may be called upon to make anent of the above.

WE FORGIVE YOU HONEY.

"The Freeman may rail as much as it chooses against the pamphlet idea of Frederick Douglass; the Negro has been shamefully treated by the World's Fair Commission, and the story ought to be told so that our foreign brothers may understand why the exhibition and representation of the Afro Americans are so few. In the absence of any other suggestion to tell our side the story, we favor Mr. Douglass' plan.—Philadelphia Tribune.

Now look here Brother, the "Pamphlet" idea is as good as dead, thanks to the good sense of the race generally, so your favoring of Mr. Douglass' plan is too late for practical service. If however, time shall prove us wrong, and it shall appear from the good results, that The Tribune was on the right track, and builded well for the race, following the leadership of Mr. Douglass, we hope we shall be able to refer to our distinguished contemporary's action with that courtesy due its sincerity and unselfish motives in the matter. "A soft answer turneth away wrath," and the best type of polemic journalism after all, is the cultivation of that breadth and charity of spirit that enables you to speak unraspingly of your erring brother no matter how much his opinions may differ from yours in the premises. In quite a snappish, impatient manner you charge The Freeman with "rail"-ing. Being a believer in peace and not giving to altercation, we forgive you honey, and may the Lord have mercy on your good natured soul.

THE PASSING OF "JIM CROW."

The sentiment that made the "Jim Crow Car" iniquity a possibility is growing shaky, and is surely dying of inaction and the general vileness and cussedness upon which it is predicated. The thought is encouraging, the "sun do move," and the warmth and light of the better 19th century civilization is too much for the icicles of racial hate and caste. The great good common sense, the saving force latent in the breast of better America, is asserting itself. The recent Caldwell decision in the New York courts was a slogan, a harbinger of cheer and relief. Too much praise cannot be extended to counsel for plaintiff, Lawyer Stewart, and Judge Wallace, who presided. Brushing away the cobwebs of technicality and precedent, where they obscured common sense and plain right, the purest law, he ruled with fairness, and instructed the jury as an upright Judge might do, who had faith in the virility of justice. Anent of the case, that splendid journal, the Inter-Ocean, splendidly said:

> "The Inter Ocean is glad to see movements like this on the part of the intelligent people of the North, and if there were an organized effort for the multiplication of such suits it would soon bring both the corporations and the Legislatures to terms. These laws for separate cars for colored people, as carried out by the railroad companies, are a disgrace and a shame to civilization. They are relics of barbarism, and it is the duty of all good citizens, regardless of party, to help break them down The sooner it is recognized everywhere in this country that all men are equal before the law, and that before the law there is no such thing as a superior or inferior class, the better it will be for the country, present and future."

AN ACCURSED LAND.

There are none so blind as those who will not see, is the thought of a familiar axiom, and the late meeting of the Southern Governors to devise ways and means to turn a portion of the tide of immigration to America Southward instead of Westward, brings it freshly to our mind. They may petition the President and "resolve 'til the cows come home," but as long as they and the "old families" they represent steadfastly refuse to see and attack the real curse that rests upon their land, they may expect to be passed by, by the twin factors of prosperity and civilization, capital and brawn. President Cleveland cannot help them, in the presence of the disease that at last is gnawing at their vitals, he is as helpless as an infant. The help they need, and must have, is in their own hands, they alone are the physicians. For over a quarter a century, murder, outrage, persecution and crime, has stalked over the "Sunny South" unchecked, unapologized for, unpunished. Crime's, clammy fingers and repellant visage, has done its awful work, and well, the world has witnessed, heard and shuddered, and the appeal of a partisan president would fall upon deaf and unresponsive ears. What is done, is done, and they, the Southern Governors, and the people for whom they speak, cannot or call back to life the fifty thousand murdered Americans, whose blood has soddened the soil of every Southern State, but they can be sorry that it is so, and resolve that it shall be so no more. Where human life is insecure, where murder is winked at, and outrage is condoned, capital, always timid, hesitates to invest, and where it will not go, labor, brawn, is not wanted. It has been the policy of the people of the South to turn a blind eye and a deaf ear to the crimes that have accursed and darkened that section, but in striving to fool and decieve the on-lookers, in the averaging up, they at last realize, they have but fooled themselves, and they now stand before the world condemned and marked, "and none so poor as to do them reverence." When not busy within the last twenty-five years, murdering black men, they have put in their spare time persecuting and ostracising Northern white men. Following close upon the heels of the war, thousands of white men, representing the capital, brains, and business and commercial push of the North, were attracted to the South, and if they had been undisturbed, would have built up her waste places, and injected new blood into her effete and slave-ridden carcass. But the spirit that received them was from the beginning hostile, mean and suspicious. Instead of being welcomed as friends in need, they were tabbooed from every standpoint, business, social and political, as "adventurers" and "carpet-baggers," unworthy the consideration of "gentlemen, sah!" who had "owned their niggers by the hundreds sah!" The result was the great bulk of Northern capital and enterprise withdrew from the inhospitable clime as fast as possible, and placed their money and enterprise where they were promised returns. For many years the South has recognized but one political party, a sure sign of decadence and weakness, and the immigrant who went there and carried his Republicanism with him was soon made to feel by threats and hostile combinations, that hell possessed no hotter corner than the average Southern community dominated by the men who laid down their arms at Appomattox and wept because the Union was preserved. Once the South possess the courage to see itself as it is seen, to admit and deplore its past crimes and guilt, to vouchsafe to all men, black and white, Jew and Gentile, Republican or Democrat, rich or poor, foreign or to the manor born, the same chance, the same consideration and protection under the law, that is true of other sections of our common country, they will have achieved a victory over themselves, the fruits of which will bless all the generations of the future, and the South, the new South indeed, become what it can be, the garden spot, the Eden of the Western hemisphere.

IS THIS SO?

Ex-Senator John J. Ingalls, always interesting, whether in repose or strife, has recently set the thinking world to pondering as a result of some expressed opinions on various matters in which the Negro, who can't be left out, comes in for a share of observation relative to the future that awaits him. Pointing to the fate of the Mongolian and Indian races of the earth, who have each and in turn gone down before or been swallowed up, by the omnivorousness of the hardy, hoggish Anglo-Saxon, he sees the same fate awaiting the Negro. Our able contemporary, The Statesman, in a late editorial, evidently inspired by the Ingalls talk, says among other thoughtful things, this:

> "He (the Negro) should acquire knowledge and wealth, embark in all manner of business enterprises, build up his own institutions and undertakings, battle against adverse sentiments and prejudices and do every thing his genius, industry or manhood can devise to train himself to the highest standard of modern civilization. But it should all be done to express preparation for a great, final moving day. Providence intends no future, filled with manhood's unlimited fervor, for the black race in America.
> "The constantly growing sentiment in favor of emigration is not foolish, but heaven sent. It will never be weaker than it is to-day, until an important fraction of the ten millions of American Negroes are scattered in lands compatible with their blood. Africa must have her portion, South America will have her portion, the islands of the southern seas may win a portion, but the final result is inevitable; the North American Negro, as a race, must go. This end will probably be accomplished gradually through the steadily growing wisdom of Afro-American and its constant and ardent application to the improvement of his present opportunities and his triumph, so far as possible, over the unfortunate conditions in the midst of which the wisdom of Providence has placed him."

Is this so? Is there to be no ripe and equal future for the Negro in America? Has Bishop Turner seen clearer and with a more prophetic eye than his critics and opposers? Must the North American Negro, as a race, go, and find his home and future in more congenial and widely separated climes?

We do not share our friend's final consensus of opinion, while we confess the freshness and somewhat captivating audacity of his views, and have no apology to offer in asking our readers to scan them. What do you think of them?

WHERE ARE WE "AT," ANYWAY?

We have received a communication from a well meaning correspondent, calling our attention to an account of a recent "burning" in Georgia, at which, it is said, Negroes took a part. Our correspondent very naturally deplores the horrible outrage, if true, and says:

> "Whether true or false, I bewail the lessons that they are learning from such examples. * * * You must see that as a people become accustomed either to the doing of such things, or the reading of such accounts, they must also become more callous and indifferent. Lift your voice against these holocausts."

Our correspondent's reflections are logical and timely, but surely he should know, if he reads The Freeman at all, that his request that we shall lift our "voice against" the evils he complains of, is a strange one. What else have we been doing through all these years? There will never be a time when The Freeman shall prove derilict in that direction. But the race's wants and wrongs are so many and so diversified, that we cannot devote all our attention and space, to any one specific cause of complaint and shame.

"IRISH AFRO-AMERICAN?"

"Our Irish Afro-American editor, Sweeney, of the Indianapolis Freeman, fills two columns of valuable space of that paper in a recent issue, endeavoring to dodge the very pointed questions asked him by the Sage of Anacostia. Brother Sweeney will have to learn that interrogative statements cannot be satisfactorily answered by multiplying meaningless words and flippant phrases."—Ledger.

"Irish Afro-American" is good, but sonny if you are really in favor of the "Pamphlet" idea, as defined by Mr. Douglass, why don't you tell the truth in your reflections? "Dodge?" The Freeman don't do such things, and did not in this matter you refer to, as you should know, if indeed you know anything of it, which we fear is a question. In the line of its duty to the race as it understands it, The Freeman is animated by but one desire, to tell the truth for the sake of the truth, which in the end must always triumph, always believing that the concern and interest of the masses are of greater moment than those of the individual. Pretty good rule, don't you think? But "Irish Afro-American!" "No more of that Hal, and thou lovest me."

Easter Chimes.

Easter was observed at the A. M. E. church. At night four joined the church, 72 communed at the Lord's table. Also at 4:30 p. m. young and old had a good time in finding Easter eggs. The Stewardess board met Monday at 3:30 p. m. and agreed to purchase chairs for the pulpit. The St. John Literary society is doing good work and the young people of Fordyce are becoming interested about it and turning out and filling the house. So if you want to get a seat that you may hear you had better be on time. The revival meetings at the Greenville Baptist church have closed. I don't know the success, but hope they had a good time. Miss Carrie Story has returned from Pine Bluff, where she has been visiting friends. We are always glad to see our good people go to see their friends, but are still glader to see them return looking well. Prof. Cooper, from Los Angelos, Cal., came up from Camden to display his church show.

The Hero of St. Michael Finds a Prototype.

Edward and Paul Singer (white), employed by Byron C. Smith & Co., stone and marble dealers of New York City, had a miraculous escape from instantaneous death recently. They were engaged in cleaning the spire of St. Patrick's cathedral, which towers 330 feet in the air. In stepping out upon their aerial perch one of the ropes that held the frail platform broke. The wind was blowing at a very rapid rate, hurling the two imperiled brothers against the marble of the church spire. The two men, one holding to a rope and sustaining his brother with the other hand, were practically swinging like two gymnasts at the end of the rope, when Johnson Hall, a young colored lad, who was the first to discover their perilous condition, darted up the winding staircase, leading to the spire, and with the assistance of a few church employes, drew the men to a place of safety.

"Take the Freeman's Advice.

Washington, N. J. special.

We have a few colored men who have started out in this life for themselves' Jos Steel started out without a penny, bought a horse and wagon for all kinds of carting. He now owns as fine a draft horse as travels the streets of Washington. His trade has increased so that he employs a man with him. He is buying a house and lot. E. H Townsend has bought out Jos. Van's Restaurant and employs two waiters. The race stand by him and ought to support him. A little less of banjo picking and, take the advice of The Freeman, we will prosper. I. G. Hoff, a graduate of the public school will be a prof. of music. If necessary he can play any instrument in the band but makes the clarionet a specialty. He secured a situation in the Needham piano and organ factory as a tuner. He is the only colored tuner in Warren county. John McClarney has had two copies of the Freeman and has been a reader for 50 years but says it is the best paper he has ever read for the colored people.

THE LADIES! GOD BLESS 'EM AND FURNISH EACH WITH A FREEMAN SEWING MACHINE.

Yes, God bless the ladies!

It would be a sad, old world indeed, without their cheering presence

The Freeman, always their defender and friend, wishes to especially emphasize the fact in a helpful, practical way.

We spoke of The Freeman Sewing Machines; well, our arrangements are at last complete and we have them by hundreds, which we propose to virtually give to our lady friends everywhere for a mere song, and a little healthful exercise on their part.

Do you appreciate our intent ladies, and will you promise to put no straw in the way of its successful carrying out?

All right; now listen to our plan.

There are four ways by which you may obtain this splendid light-running, improved high-arm machine, "The Freeman." Read and act at once.

1. By sending us $18 in cash, we will ship to your address, no matter how far away you are, the machine either in black walnut or antique oak, and will also send The Freeman, the leading race paper in the world, to your address for one year. How does that strike you?

2. You may want to use your ready cash in another direction; all right, that suits us, and yet the machine is yours. Listen:

Devote your afternoons for a week or ten days to obtaining a club of fifty subscribers to The Freeman at $1 35 each. Don't stop until you obtain them; send the names and money to us; the thing is done, the machine and The Freeman for one year are yours.

3. Well, but you say you haven't time to go after fifty subscribers; all right again, and no harm done. If you will send us a club of thirty yearly subscribers at $1.50 each, the machine is yours and a copy of The Freeman free to you for one year; see? Don't by any means let this chance get away from you. The machine you purchased when you first married is old and shackling, and you must have a new one.

How about the World's Fair? Were you thinking of attending? Do you want to go and have your railroad expenses paid both ways, and three days' board after you arrive there?

Chicago is sometimes called the "Windy City" and again the "Garden City;" by whatever name you choose, certain it is, that during this coming summer it will be the most talked of, the most celebrated city in the world. Every body will be there and his aunt and cousin, from the four corners of the earth. Kings, Queens, Princes, Dukes, Asiatics, Africans, Europeans, Man-eaters, Cannibals, mixed up in one promiscuous, surging mass, beautified and made instructive by the art and inventions of every age and land. It will be a sight, a picture of a life time, and not by any means to be missed.

The question is, ladies, do you want to go? that's the question. Do you want to see it, and will you kindly allow The Freeman to help you?

Yes, did you say? All right, listen, read our plan with care,

1. Resolve thoroughly in your mind that you are going to attend the Columbian Exposition.

2. Resolve again that The Freeman shall pay the expenses of the trip.

3 Convince your father, your husband, your big brother, your affianced, your pastor, your Sunday-school superintendent, your grocer, your baker, your butcher, your dry goods man, that it is their duty to help you in the matter.

4. Put them to work and you yourself go to work like a beaver.

5. After you have secured for us one hundred and fifty paid up yearly subscribers at $1 50, we will send you "The Freeman" machine, five great books by great Negro authors, and a round trip ticket to the World's Exposition, with a check for three days' board in the wonderful city by the lake shore.

Bear in mind, that The Freeman's great object, after all, is to place one of its beautiful machines in your homes, without taking a cent from your private purse.

You have been our friends for years have clung to us through thick and thin, and we wish you to feel it has not gone unappreciated.

Commence work at once. Read description of your machine on seventh page of this issue.

Rev. H. L. Colored people are as prone to go crazy as white people, especially when they stay too close to that which kills. One Peter Gilmore, well known in the vicinity of Hayes' Drug Store, Michigan street, and Indiana Avenue, has taken a notion that he should become non mentis compos, otherwise, crazily crazy. He has had of late a notion that some one was trying to poison him and that he actually had poison in his stomach: therefore, to rid himself of the poison he cut his throat. He is now held as one not fit to be at large.

Hezekiah Lawson, better and more generally known as "Ki," who attends to the whiskers and hair and general shaping up of the appearance of men, located on Indiana Avenue, has taken a streak looking towards the improvement of his business room. Not only has he been papering, scrubbing, polishing and giving a general clean up to his tonsorial establishment, but he has gone further, and placed a cigar case in his place of business, in order to more and better facilitate the fastidious tastes of his customers. "Ki" is all right when he is not all wrong, and we predict that his renovation will add materially to his business in a financial way.

Miss Flora Batson Bergen and Manager J. G. Bergen, passed through the city last Monday, enroute to her temporary home, Chicago, after a very successful concert tour in New York, Philadelphia, Boston, and other Eastern cities, where thousands greeted her. Manager Bergen stopped a few hours, calling on Revs. Carr and Lewis, but Mr. Knox did not allow him to get away from the Bates House till a contract had been signed for Miss Batson's appearance here at Masonic Temple, June 8th, in a grand concert, the details of which will surpass anything held in the city for a long time.

INTERESTING REPLY

To Correspondents Query—Let Others Speak on the Subject.

In a recent letter to The Freeman one of our fellow-correspondents puts the query, "Should local society small news be sent to a national paper?" Well, we should say, that depends. We do not mind reading "local small news," as it gives us some insight to the social status of various towns in our country, and besides we suppose it does not hurt the circulation of The Freeman any; hence we bear with what our friend in Lawrence. Kan., terms "local small news;" but one thing we can't persuade ourselves to "fancy" is junk. That is, a lot of "society local small news," reference to some of our leading Negroes, a few advertisements, and a couple or so of lynchings, all in one correspondence. If we are to have a correspondence intended for the "general interest" of the people, then let us have it; if to make known some of our leading local men we'll accept it too; if the communication is to contain society "small news," then let us have that and that only. In short we are of the opinion, that in writing to a great paper, such as The Freeman, we should confine ourselves to one thing at the time.

We like to read of great and good Negroes, like to read some politics, and are always anxious to read society news, but we do not think, as before intimated, that all should come in one box. We trust our Kansas friend will not take this as personal, as we do not think he has been guilty of "junk" correspondence, and beside, this is an opinion of our own, only, and amounts to but a very little, unless shared by some of the other knights of the quill. See? "REX REBUS."

WHITE MARAUDERS ATTACK

An Aged Colored Man's Home And Meet a Hot Reception.

The Defender of His Family Gives Himself Into Custody—Talk of Mob Violence—Authorities Act Promptly.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Special.

Sunday evening, April 16th, an old colored man with a musket on his shoulder marched into the city and requested the chief of police to put him in jail. His name is Mac McKinney, and he told in substance the following story: "I live in the neighborhood of Noah Springs. I was aroused this morning before daybreak by two men, who wanted to gain admission to my house. As I did not know them, I refused to admit them. They then asked for a chunk of fire, but as I felt afraid I would only consent to pass the fire out of the window. In doing this the two men seized my arm and tried to pull me out, but I succeeded in extricating myself and closed the window. The two men then demanded that I must open the door or they would set my house on fire, but afterward gave me twenty minutes to open the door, saying that they were going to break in if I failed to comply with their orders. At the expiration of the time alloted, desiring to save my life and protect by family, I told the girls to crawl under the bed and I perched myself up in the loft of my cabin and awaited the crash, advising the intruders though not to break in. Yet they heeded not my warning; they cared not their lives to save. Time was called and they in a moment had forced their way into my house, at the same time discharging their revolvers. I fired in return and they fled at once, and as they beat a hasty retreat I could plainly hear one begging in piteous tones not to be forsaken, saying that he was shot."

McKinney could not give the result of the injury caused by the discharge of the faithful old musket, but was satisfied that one of the intruders at least had been injured. On Monday following news reached the city that a young white man by the name of Rives, who lives about one mile from McKinney, was the victim of the faithful old musket, and that he had been shot in the groins. At this writing Rives is still alive, but is in a critical condition. The victim is the son of a respectable farmer, and some indignation is reported from that locality because of Rives being shot by McKinney, which caused the authorities to send McKinney to Henderson to prevent his being mobbed. Rives says he was on a fox hunt and just wanted to warm. A white gentleman, claiming to know something of the circumstances, said they were after McKinney's girls. We also learned that the wound corroborates McKinney's loft statement, it showing that it was inflicted by some one above the victim. We have given the details as we gathered them, without comment or exaggeartion.

Mr. and Mrs. Davidson, of Elkton was in the city last week. Miss Ella Barnett, of Lafayette, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Cora Hooser, of E. Second street. Mr. and Mrs. H. know how to travel. They carry their horse and buggy wherever they go. Sells & Renfrow's show will be here Thursday, May 4th. Prof. Coleman's Art exhibition and concert at the C. M. E. church on the 16th inst. was a decided hit. Mrs. P. Postell, Jr., has been quite sick. Miss Lula Glass is showing her interest in Sunday-school work to the satisfaction of the patrons of Freeman Chapel Sunday-school. Prof. A. H. Payne lectured to the above school Sunday, the 16th. Prof. Powers is in the city and will strive to make the Hopkinsville Cornet band second to none in this section. The band has just received their new caps and are ready to fill any engagement. We learn with pleasure that Mrs. W. M. Lucas (county) is rapidly convalescing. Dude Cacey is out, after a brief illness.

"BAGLEY HALL" PLEADS

For Assistance—A Worthy Institution that the Race Should Help.

Editor of The Freeman.

Please allow us space in the columns of your paper to bring before the public our plea for the Temperence Industrial and Collegiate institute, at Claremont, Va., in which we, Misses Mary E. Lockley and Ella C. Harris, are engaged as teachers and financial agents. In order to make our work a success, and of any benefit to the race we represent, we must appeal to the public for help. We beg for your sympathy and prayers, and for religious co-operation. The school named above, of which the Rev. John J. Smallwood is president, a young Negro minister of rare educational advantages, has been planted by him at Claremont, Surry Co., Va. This is a beautiful village on the James River, and within about an hour's ride of old historical Jamestown, where the first cargo of Negro slaves was landed, April, 1620.

The first terms of the school opened, Oct. 31, 1872 We are now a living reality, and progressing as best we can, under the embarassing circumstances under which we labor. Our students are poor, too poor to pay us even six dollars per month for board and tuition. They come from the rural districts of Virginia, and North Carolina. They are from uneducated homes and parents, In many cases we have had to furnish books and clothes. They are anxious to improve themselves, and they pray that God will bless our efforts in trying to raise money to carry on this work. We are poor and compelled to beg. We ask our friends, here and everywhere, to help us. This school is young and has many needs. We need friends and money. Since our school is an industrial one we need many articles for our industrial department; such as stoves, washing and sewing machines, tables, plows, cooking utensils, farming implements; also we need, cups, saucers, plates, tubs, and many other useful articles. Our friends who wish to help us, and have not money to give us, may give us any of the things mentioned. We shall be grateful for anything our friends may see fit to give and will promptly acknowledge the receipt of the same. For further information, write to the president of "Bagley Hall."

REV. JOHN J. SMALLWOOE.

Arkansas Baptist College.

MR. EDITOR:—I write to say a few words concerning our dear College which burned down not very long ago. Our hearts were made sad to stand and look at the flames sweeping over our school, after four or five years hard struggling to complete it. What shall we do now? We are almost as fatherless children without a home. Shall we continue without a home? No, we shall not. I see a bright future. Our College shall be rebuilt. I hope the losses of the A. B. College will be more than made up. Some complain that times are hard and they cannot do anything for the school. If we are alive to the claims of the cause, we can do a great deal. Our offerings will be more acceptable to God and will be made more productive of good if they cost us something. Will not our little folks one and all rush to our rescue and help to give it such a push forward that it will never stop again until every brick is put up. I hope you will feel an interest in this work, All honor to the man or woman who will do the most to extend the circulation of the needs of the Arkansas Baptist College.

SUFFERING AMONG THE POOR

Danville, Va., Special.

Mr. Johnnie Paxton, who has been sick for the past two months with consumption, at his mother's residence, Newton street, died Friday, the 14th of April. The funeral took place from the High Street Baptist church, Saturday, the 15th. He was from one of the best colored families in the city and was liked by all who knew him. The agent of The Freeman sympathizes with the family in their bereavment. Rev, Wm. E. Carr returned from the Presbytery, Saturday, the 15th, that met at Berksville, Va, last week Monroe Carter, of Martinsville, Pa, also arrived in the city, Saturday, the 15th, from the Presbytery and spent Sunday in the city with his father-in-law, Joseph Beuford. J. R. Wilson, of Lynchburg, Va, spent a few days in the city. Jos. A. Garland, the agent of The Freeman, closed his school, Monday, the 17th of April, and had the closing exercises in the Mill Street church that night. Everything was nicely carried out. Paul Rison was present and made a very interesting talk to parents and scholars.

A young colored man stole some money from a man in Ruffer's France bar room last. He was sent to the grand jury. Saturday about 1 o'clock a pistol shot was heard to ring out upon the air; a colored man had tried to kill a colored women, while under the influence of whiskey. He was sent to the grand jury. Miss M. W. Jones arrived home from New York, Sunday night, April 16th, where she has been for the last seven months under the doctors; she is looking well. Everything is quite dull here at present; if things do not change in a few weeks, the colored people will be in a suffering condition, The tobacco factories are not doing anything,

The Sabbath school missionary preached at the Calvary Baptist church, Sunday, 16th of April. Coldman Hawkins, of Reidsville, N. C., was in the city last week. He is expecting to go in the whiskey business in the city. Mr. Hawkins was formerly of this city and was in business here a number of years ago. Wm. Green returned from Washington, D. C., where he has been since last fall. He is looking well and his many friends were glad to see him. Mr. George Jones returned from Greens boro, N. C, last week. All that want ice call on R. M. Donahoo. Samuel McCoy has returned from Jacksonville, Florida.

Mrs. Ella Broadnax, of Leaksville N. C spent a day in the city, the guest of M. G. Henderson, 803 Union st. I would like to ask this question through the Freeman. Don't you think it would be better for the Afro-American's to get an education and save every dollar he can and not buy so much property in the South, where they can be driven from it in the twinkling of an eye. For instance take James City N. C. A little town all colored and although they have been there 28 years they must give it up. The governor of N. C. sent them word to leave, if not he would send the troops upon them. I saw in the paper Sunday 16th April where a colored man was burned alive a few miles from Atlanta Ga., Saturday, Apr. 15th. The more the Negro learns the worse it is going to be for him. The Negro will have to go to Africa and we just as well be turning our faces towards that continent, now. Ninty.two years ago Thos. Jefferson said, "The two races will not live in a state of equal freedom under the same government so insurmountable are the barriers which nature, habit and opinion have established between them"

As I said before, the more the Negro learns the worse it is going to be. So parents, teach your girls and boys to work give them an education and learn the boys a trade. So when they go to Africa to build up colonies and civilized nations they will know what they are about. But it seems that the Afro-Americans of this country have turned their backs upon the land of their forefathers, and other nationalities are taking it up. We had rather remain in this country to be lynched and burned alive than go to where we will be free. and free indeed. I dont mean that all the Afro-Americans of this country must go to Africa but men of education, money and trades. Jos. A. Garland spent two days at Mount Cross Va. last week. We still need two colored doctors in this city.

Topeka, Kan.

A successful revival meeting held at the First Baptist church of North Topeka, just closed with an addition of twenty-two converts and many others reclaimed. We have Bev. S. W. Beasly, the traveling evangelist of Arkansas, in the city. The Reverend gentleman will hold meetings through our state, also Oklahoma. Rev. Beasly is a successful preacher; any church will do well to have his service.

CLAIRVOYANTS!
NOW IS THE TIME TO CONSULT
DR. AND MME. MARSHALL

Knowledge is Power; to be Forewarned is to be Forearmed.

CALL OR WRITE, and know thy destiny; remain not in darkness or ignorance, but seek the light of knowledge and learn what the mysterious future holds for you. The fact that Doctor and wife are the only Clairvoyants on earth that can assist the troubled and unsuccessful ones at a distance, without ever seeing the parties, has been proven by their many years of experience, which has met with such universal satisfaction; they have been pronounced in all places the greatest living wonders of the present age, understanding the science of the Persian and Hindoo magic or ancient charm working, which will overcome your enemies, remove family troubles, restore lost affections, make marriage with the one you love, remove evil influences, bad habits; they will give correct information on law suits, divorces, absent friends, everything; never-failing advice to young men on marriage, and how to choose a wife for happiness and what business best adapted for speedy riches; stock speculation a specialty; also gives indispensable advice to young ladies on love, courtship and marriage, and if your lover is true or false, with date of marriage; thousands have been made happy by their aid and advice. They advertise nothing but what they can do, and would not be classed with the many cheap pretenders found in every city. All who are in trouble, whose fond hopes have been blasted, who have been deceived and disappointed by false predictions of others, before giving up to despair are invited to call or write, and be convinced of the above true statement without delay. SECURE A CHARM AND WEAR DIAMONDS.

Egyptian Charms and their Power.

There has been so much deception practiced lately by Clairvoyants in regard to these charms that it is almost impossible to know the genuine. Our charms apply to either sex. To illustrate, we will use for a subject: A Horse-shoe Magnet and a Needle. You all know the power of magnetism. If there was no magnetism applied to the needle it would not fly to the Magnet, but supply the iron with magnetism and the needle seeks its affinity and flies to the Magnet. Now the lady is the magnet and the gentleman is the needle. If the lady has enough magnetism she can draw the gentleman to her; but if see has not enough of this power the gentleman remains at a distance. The lady may be able to draw a number of different persons to her, but the one she wants stays away. Why? Because he having more magnetism than the lady, he cannot be drawn toward her. Now, what is to be done? Give the lady more magnetism than the gentleman, and note the change. In a short time the gentleman will be drawn to her, and a union follows. Now, how do we get the magnetism that will act on human bodies and minds? From Ancient Egyptian Charms made from a substance discovered over two thousand years ago, and which none of the clairvoyants of the present day have. Those who are in possession of this secret are not found practicing in this country, and you can safely say that Dr. and wife are the only possessors of this valuable secret, now practicing in the United States. A great many supposed clairvoyants prepare charms from foul drugs, potions, etc., which are unsafe, unfair and dangerous, and never meet with success. Marriage can be brought about by a safe, sure method, and in short time, and leave no bad effect, such as unhappiness, quarrels, etc. By the use of our Egyptian Charms life will be made happy after marriage as well as before. Again, notice some married people after they have been married a number of years. The husband becomes cold, indifferent and sometimes cruel. Why? Because the lady has lost her magnetism which she naturally possessed, and losing that, lost her husband's love. What is the remedy? The Egyptian Charm, by supplying new magnetism, supplies new love. If you are unsuccessful in life, or wish to obtain happiness, consult these gifted people at once. Remember Dr. and wife wishes it distinctly understood that they do not charge for these charms,—simply for the work that accompanies them. All business strictly confidential. Prompt attention given to all correspondence. Letters with stamps answered. Send for circulars. Address,

DRIFT OF SENTIMENT

"TILL NEXT VOTING TIME COMES"

The elections are only two weeks off, till then every "coon," "nigger," "darky" will be a "cullud gentleman," thereafter he will be "darky," "nigger," "coon," till next voting time comes. This is the way it goes.—The Advance.

"LESS PHILOSOPHY, MORE COMMON SENSE.

We want the United States Constitution to say what it means, and mean what it says; we want less traitors and more loyal patriots; we want less philosophy on paper and more common sense and patriotism in the United States Congress.—New England Torchlight.

"GENERALLY CUSSED."

As a race we have a good many faults and a good many virtues. We spend more money than we ought; too many of us go to the police caurt involuntarily; to many of us dress our bodies and leave our heads and hearts filthy; too many of us are immoral and generally "cussed."—Afro American Sentinel.

"COMMON SENSE AND REASON"

Be it said to the credit of our men they are learning that it is not irreligious to be strictly business. It has been a long night with intense darkness, nevertheless the East gives promise of a beautiful and permanent sunrise. Let a fight for common sense and reason be made all along the line.—Texas Baptist Star.

"SHORT OF THE MARK TO BE AIMED AT."

We are more than ever impressed with the idea that no education is complete which does not bring into full use all of man's powers, physical as well as mental. Large sums are laid out year after year upon the literary training of young men and women which fall very far short of the mark to be aimed at.—Southern Missioner.

"MUST STAND OR FALL TOGETHER."

The two races in this country, Caucassian and Negro, must stand or fall together, apart from the question of miscegenation, which may be dismissed as an idle fancy. The hope of the future lies in education; not in mere book knowledge, but in the inculcation of good habits, the observation of virtue, the practice of self-reliance and the growth of general good character.—The Brotherhood.

"EDUCATED PEOPLE OUGHT TO BE AN EXAMPLE."

The Negro race needs to be built up. The trouble is that those who are capable and ought to build it up are doing nothing, but those who are the inferiors are the ones who are pushing things to the front, Educated people ought to be an example to the rest. They ought to bear with great trials and tribulations before doing anything that would have a tendency to pull the race down.—Blue Grass Chronicle.

"AGAINST YOUR CONSCIENCE."

Why allow your homes to be infested with the ruinous and poisonous presence of men whose every impulse is to destroy the virtue of that home? Why do you men, whose homes are filled with girls from 16 to 20 years of age, protect a scoundrel because you are drawing $12 or $15 per month for board, against the honest convictions of your conscience and the protest of the public?—Bowling Green Defender.

"FROM THE SOUTHLAND."

The Negroes who left the South on the account of depression, and are scattered through the North and West are most gratified with the change. Their communications show that they have no desire even to visit their old homes. There are thousands of acres of lands suitable to agriculture, and it is folly for the colored brethren of the South to think their only support must come from the Southland.—Colorado Exponent.

"THAN SOME OF HIS CRITICS."

General Harrison appears to have known better than some of his critics did what he was doing when he made Judge Jackson, of Tennessee, a Justice of the United States Supreme Court. This week Justice Jackson handed down an opinion in a decision that gave the States Rights doctrine as hard a single blow as it ever received. The decision was that State Courts may try a prisoner brought by a requisition from another State on charges other than those set forth in the requisition papers; that States do not stand towards each other as independent foreign nations do, their soverignty being limited by the Federal Constitution —Florida Sentinel.

"SHOULD HAVE RACE PRIDE."

Though there are some who would despise us because we are Negroes, and there are some of the race who would get away from it if they could, yet it is our duty to stand up for ourselves and be counted. We should have more race pride, take more interest in the things belonging to the race, have more respect for ourselves; and withal, put on a bold front and act the part of men in every instance.—Virginia Lancet.

"BE BROAD, BE HUMANE."

Men and brothers! let us not be to selfish in our rush for progress and advancement, but give to your mother, your wife, or your sister, your strong right arm, and assist them along with you. Don't frown down on the female portion of our race, for our future development and prosperity depends as much upon their efforts as upon those of the stronger sex. Quit your selfishness. Be broad, Be hunmane.—Negro Solicitor.

"SAY IN ABOUT SIX MONTHS TIME."

Mr Cleveland has not recognized the colored contingent yet. How soon he will, remains to be seen. The phalanx, when in battle array, is not large, though it is by no means small when on a hunt for spoils. When it comes to numbers the colored brother is not a whit behind his white brother in the matter of spoils hunting. He certainly understands that kind of business. It will not be many more months before there will be many of them wiser if not better men—say in about six months time.—The New South.

A Spelling Match.

Camden, Ark., Sdecial.

A grand supper was given on the 7th and 8th, under the auspices of the Sunday-school classes, No. 1 and No. 3. A grand competition spelling match, took place, on Friday night- under the management of Prof. W. H Gatlin. Little Joe Thomas, about 10 years old was the successful speller, and was presented with a handsome book. Mrs. Nannie Hill and Miss Fannie Harris were the Teachers of said clases and in this effort raised about $60.00 clear of expenses which is for the benefit of the new church. Our Easter exercises were the most elaborate ever given, The program began at 2 p. m. under the management of Rev. S. P, Thompson, superintendent. Rev. J. T. Taylor, pastor, and Mrs. A. H. Napoleon, organist. The program was lengthy and consisted of orations, declamations, essays, solos, duetts, dialogues, etc. The missionary money raised was $10 40. Rev. J. T. Taylor is out working in the interest of the excursion which is for the benefit of the new church. Mr. and Mrs C. D. Wallis entertained at their residence last Thursday evening. Mr. Willie Chandler who has been absent from our city some months has returned. A grand musical entertainment was given at the Baptist church on the 14th and 15th inst. Mrs A. H. Napoleon, was musical director. Let every body who feels an interest in our welfare subscribe for The Freeman. Any one can pay the small sum of five cents. Mrs. A. H. Napoleon will handle The Freeman, and will use every exertion to increase its circulation in this city. Send Freeman news to Mrs. A. H. Napsleon, Camden, Ark.

VALUABLE PROPERTY OWNED

By Colored People—a Queen Esther Court to be Organized.

Burlington, Kan. special.

Our little city is on the banks of the Neosho river, the view of which can be had a long distance away. It has a population of about 2300 and is a republican town. We have two colored churches, A. M. E. and Baptist, one barber shop, run by Messrs. Gray and Fuller. A numher of our people own their own homes, and property is owned by the following persons. Mrs. Jos. Gray, fine estate; Mr. Banks a fine home in town and a stock farm; Mrs. Patsy Green, a widow, a fine home; Mason Nice, house and lots for gardens; Mrs. Annie Clay, a nice home; Mrs. Geo. Smith a nice piece of property. Mr. Brown sr., good house and lot; the A. M. E. people have a nice corner lot with the foundation laid. The Baptist have just built on their old lots. We have one lodge, the Masons. Rev. Leonard will in about two weeks, set up the Queen Esther's Court, as we need a good society for the ladies. The Queen Esther's Court is the ladies of the I. O. J. The colored population is only about 125. The Baptist church people completed the ceiling of their church last week. Mrs. Josey Gray and daughter left last Saturday for Ottumwa, to spend a day or two with Miss Nellie Chemey. The Baptist social given by the ladies was not a financial success. The revival at the A. M. E. church closed last Thursday night. It was spiritually good. We hope the Bishop will give Rev. J. L. Leonard a better field to work in next fall for he is worthy of it. Mr. Thomas Chaney, one of our farm and stock owners is very sick at his home in Ottumwa. There is no need of the colored men holding up the sunny side of the street corners, reading newspapers that are against him, but turn around and pick up one of the Negroes best papers ever published and read the doings of our race, The Freeman. The storm of last Thursday night did not effect us any but it did look as though it was coming on us for a while. Rev. J. L. Leonard and Mrs. Lottie Moore and Miss Minnie Moore spent a day on the river fishing. Jeff Johnson of Yates Center was in the city last week visiting his sister Mrs. Olie Brown. Miss Lizzie Mason is out after a sickness of over three months. There will be one colored young lady graduate next month from the High school of Burlington, Miss Williams. Our girls are coming, Let the work go on. Mrs. Annie Clay is able to be out after a long spell of sickness. Messrs. Gray and Twiller nave been remodeling their tonsorial parlor. It looks very neat. They will keep out all loafers. J. M. Moore is home and has taken the position of cook at the hotel, National. Little Machalie Micheal has been very sick but is able to be out again. Our schools will close the 19th of May. Let every colored lady and gentleman subscribe for the Negro journal, of Negro's mind, brain, power worth and skill of the age, The Indianapolis Freeman. The city election last week was a sweeping victory for the Republicans. There is only one colored man in this city belonging to the white M. E. church, Wm. Artist.

Important to World's Fair Visitors.

WORLD'S COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION,
CHICAGO, March 30, 1893.

TO THE PUBLIC:

Because of many misrepresentations and misstatements relative to Exposition management and affairs being in circulation through the press and otherwise, both in this country and abroad, and in reply to many letters of inquiry or complaint touching the same matters, it seems advisable that some official statement regarding them should be made to the public. Therefore I respectfully ask that the widest publicity be given to the following facts:

1. The Exposition will be opened in readiness for visitors May 1st.

2 An abundance of drinking water, the best supplied to any great city in the world, will be provided free to all. The report that a charge would be made for drinking water probably arose from the fact that hygeia water can also be had by those who may desire it at one cent a glass.

3. Ample provisions for seating will be made without charge.

4. About 1,500 toilet rooms and closets will be located at convenient points in the buildings and about the grounds, and they will be absolutely free to the public. This is as large a number in proportion to the estimated attendance as has ever been provided in any exposition. In addition to these there will also be nearly an equal number of lavatories and toilet rooms of a costly and handsome character as exhibits, for the use of which a charge of five cents will be made.

5. The admission fee of 50 cents will entitle the visitor to see and enter all the Exposition buildings, inspect the exhibits, and in short, to see everything within the Exposition grounds, except the Esquimaw Village and the reproduction of the Colorado cliff dwelling. For these as well as for the special attractions on Midway Plaisance a small fee will be charged.

6. Imposition or extortion of any description will not be tolerated.

7. Free medical and emergency hospital service is provided on the grounds by the Exposition management.

8. The Bureau of Public Comfort will provide commodious free waiting-rooms, including spacious ladies' parlor and toilet rooms in various parts of the grounds. N. H. HIGINBOTHAM, tf President.

INTELLIGENCE CALCULATED

To Suppress Soldierly Notions in The Afro-American Youth.

Fort Huachuca, Arizona, Special.

For the past two months the colored soldiers of this post bave been on fatigue repairing an old target range, and there has not a white soldier of this post, done two hours work on the range. And how Lieut.-Col. Noyes, who is commanding officer of this post, dare make such discrimination as he does, not only about the work but in other ways, and he plainly shows by his treatment of the Negro soldiers under his command, that he hates a Negro. He works them every day that he possibly can, and sends three white men of the Second Calvary, two privates and one non-commissioned officer, to patrol around the post all night to keep the Negro soldiers in. Also, soldiers who have been in the army for over 20 years, say they have never seen soldiers treated as bad as they are treated here, Have not the white soldiers of this post just as much right to help build and repair the target range at this post, as the Negro soldier? Besides the Negro soldiers of this post, are doing work every day that is not needed, moving old walks from one part of the post to another, etc. An account of how the soldier passes the day at this post may not be uninteresting to your readers. Revillee at 5:45 a m., fatigue call, at 7:30, recall from fatigue, at 12 a. m., dinner, at 12:15 p. m., fatigue call again, at 1 p, m., school, 1 p. m., recall from fatigue, at 4:30 p. m., drill from fifteen minutes to five until fifteen minutes after five, mount guard at 5:30, so you can judge what time a soldier has here, he only has to himself from retreat to tatto, which is only from half-past five in the evening until nine at night.

TESTIMONIALS.

HAWKINS, WOOD CO., TEX., March 2, 1893.
PROF. BOUDROU:

DEAR SIR:—I hear of so many people that write to you concerning their cases after being cured, but I must fall in line with the number. I was taken with the spinal complaint, being afflicted about two years, with pains in my shoulders, and it remained there for some time. It then moved from there to my back, spine and legs, and it seemed that my strength was all gone; so I become helpless in most every possible manner. I had my doctor to call and he pronounced my case to be sciatica rheumatism. He prescribed for me, but in vain I was advised to use Warner's Safe Cure. I procured a bottle with no results, and also many other kinds of medicine, but it seemed to do no good. I then employed another doctor and met with the same results, and suffering untold misery that cannot be expressed, when a visitor looking through The Freeman, saw that Prof. Boudrou recommended a cure for the same complaint. I at once wrote to him about my case. I got a prompt answer, stating how he must treat me to be successful. Afterwards he sent me medicine to take, and stated that I would begin to feel better in three days. I felt better so ner than that time, and I now feel as well as ever and free from pain. I do and shall recommend the medicine to the suffering humanity similar to my case and others for which they are recommended, and will be pleased to answer letters from the affected that they may get medicines that are pure and be healed.

I am, dear sir, yours in Christ,
SIMON JOBE.

The : Freeman + Sewing Machine. Improved; High-Arm, Perfected

THIS MACHINE
—AND—
THE FREEMAN
FOR ONE YEAR
Only $18.00.

WARRANTED FOR 5 YRS.
HIGHLY FINISHED.
DOES PERFECT WORK.

THE FREEMAN MACHINE is adapted for every kind of sewing, from the lighest muslins to the heaviest cloths, and a wide range of work, Hemming, Braiding, Tucking, Ruffling, Quilting, Gathering, &c.

A full set of Goodrich's Attachments, in a plush-lined box, go with every machine. The simplicity of the automatic tension, sewing from No. 40 to 100 thread without altering, recommends it not only to every beginner, but to ALL. An automatic bobbin-winder run independent of the machine, winds a bobbin as regular and as hard as any spool of thread, thus making it carry so much more thread than the ordinary wound bobbin.

By an ingenious contrivance a touch upon a lever lengthens or shortens the stitch at will while the machine is sewing.

The woodwork of this machine is either black walnut or antique oak. Subscribers may name the choice.

Each machine is in perfect working order when shipped, and is accompanied with printed instructions and a complete set of tools and attachments. Also a five year warranty. If it does not prove perfect or as represented, report that fact, and we will either have the difficulty corrected to your satisfaction or take back the machine and refund money.

Every machine will be shipped by freight, unless otherwise directed, and we are prepared to fill orders promptly. Remember, the purchaser pays the freight when received. We can not prepay freight. Be careful to give your shipping address very plainly, as well as your post-office address. The freight will be but a trifle; to most points not over 50 cents; to many not more than a quarter.

The Way to get a Machine Without Cost

Do you want a FREEMAN SEWING MACHINE? Of course you do; then let us whisper in your ear a way to get one without taxing yourself a penny. Do as we advise and quicker than it takes to say "Jack Robinson," you will have just what you so much desire and need.
